

AMY'S STORY

Our little girl, Amy arrived to our home at the age of 3. She was sexually and physically abused starting at the age of one and a half. She knew and acted out things that would embarrass most adults.

Eventually, parental rights were terminated, and we adopted Amy at the age of 5. She has many issues from her past that hopefully with therapy and a loving home environment; she'll be able to overcome.

Amy will start kindergarten this fall. She loves playing outside, coloring, and playing with friends.
