

Duties of the Association President

The president shall be the chief officer and shall:

1. Preside at all regular, special or called meetings of the board of directors and general membership.
2. Be responsible for the general management and the supervision of the affairs and operation of the Association.
3. Have the authority to appoint chairpersons of all standing committees and ad hoc committees as needed by the Association, except for the nominating committee. The president cannot be appointed chairperson of any committee.
4. Be a member ex-officio with a vote on all committees except the nominating committee.
5. With the elected treasurer, sign all contracts or obligations authorized by the board of directors.
6. Officially and publicly represent the Association.
7. Perform such other duties as provided by these by laws or as commonly appertain to the office of president.
8. Be bonded.
9. Be elected for a term of two (2) years with a three-year consecutive term limit or until a successor can be found.